

BERTRAND de LAVERGNE

Paris

Chinese porcelain blue white "water pot" decorated with lotus flowers. The handle in the shape of two "shi" dragons and the flaming pearl. Based on traditional glazed stoneware ewers for serving rice wine or tea in rural societies, more luxurious varieties were exported to Asian markets where they will have had a similar function - Kangxi period 1662/1722

Literature:

Famille Verte Chinese porcelain in green enamels by C.J.A Jorg Exhibition catalogue of the Groninger Museum

N°19 p.31

17, rue des Saints-Pères

75006 Paris

France

T +33 1 42 60 21 63

bertrand.de.lavergne@wanadoo.fr